

Week of May 17, 2010
Mrs. White's Class

Spelling/Vocabulary - Unit 16 (The test is Friday.)

assume – to take upon oneself; to take for oneself; to pretend to have or be;
take for granted

cram – to stuff tightly; to fill tightly; to study hard just before a test

endanger – to expose to injury or harm

fare – to get along; cost of travel on public transportation; food and drink fertile – good for producing crops and plants; Capable of developing or growing furnish – to supply with furniture; to supply with what is needed

mammoth – a very large, long-tusked, shaggy-haired elephant that is now extinct peer – a person of the same age, rank, or ability; a British noble; to look closely rigid – not bending; very strict rowdy – rough and disorderly

safeguard – something that protects; to protect against possible danger

trespass – an action that is wrong; unlawful entry onto someone's property; to do wrong; to enter on someone's property without right

Dates to Remember

May 18 – History test over chapter 8

May 20- Trailblazer book project due on or before

May 20 – Language test over chapter 12

May 21 – No school

May 25 – Science test over chapters 7-9

May 27 – Field Day

THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH FOR ALL Your GIFTS AND CARDS! I FEEL VERY APPRECIATED!

